

The Wind in the Willows

English

Narrative: Owl Afraid of the Dark
Instructions: How to catch...

- Use the suffix -ly to turn adjectives into adverbs
- Use subordination for time e.g. when, while, as, before
- Use expanded noun phrases to specify

Maths Mastery

Addition and subtraction

Recall and use addition and subtraction facts to 20 fluently and to 100- making 10

Money

Coins, addition and subtraction of amounts

Shapes

2D and 3D shapes,

Homework

Your task this half term is to create your own nocturnal animal in its habitat.

Be creative!

Remember this is an animal you can make up and design yourself.

This Summer half term, Year 2 will be working on the topic of... "The Wind in the Willows"

Science

- Plants- Growing and observing the growth of plants in different environments
- The similarities and differences in their growth
- Habitats- Different animals and how they adapt to their habitat
- Different habitats and the surroundings

Art

- Learning about the artist David Hockney
- The effects of water in art
- Ripples and swirls

Geography

- Capital cities of the countries within the United Kingdom
- The features within the capital cities
- The areas around the capital cities