

English

Autumn 2

Narrative – Setting description – Magical room

curiosity, ancient, equipped, average, individual, marvellous, especially, desperate

hyphenated words
-less/-ness e.g. endless
participial adjectives
using the past participle
e.g. unknown
using the present participle
e.g. roaring

Recount – Biography –
Villain of Nowhere Emporium

Model text:
Recount – Biography –
Ursula the Sea Witch

recognise (able), leisure, suggest, apparent, awkward, necessary, opportunity (ies), bargain, guarantee, interfere (ing), immediately

hyphenated spellings

History

Climates of North America and how it changes.

Numeracy

Multiplication and Division

- Factors
- Prime numbers
- Formal written multiplication
- Formal written division
- Multiplying and dividing decimals

Homework

Your task this half term is to recreate a 3D model of a room within the Nowhere Emporium. You could even create your own room!

Work is to be handed by the end of term.

Year 6

Art and Design

Skills

Children will be designing and creating their own waistcoats. This will involve cutting and sewing material to create the masterpiece.

Science

Light

Exploring the way light behaves including light sources, reflection and shadow.

